IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION SIX

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

MAURICE FARRELL
BEAULIEU,

Defendant and Appellant.

2d Crim. No. B272428
(Super. Ct. No. 2015030946)
(Ventura County)

Maurice Farrell Beaulieu appeals from the judgment entered after he pled guilty to attempted first degree burglary (Pen. Code, §§ 459, 664). He was sentenced to one year in prison and awarded 289 days of presentence custody credit. The trial court granted appellant's request for a certificate of probable cause, which alleged among other things that the pre-plea proceedings violated his due process rights.

Because appellant pled guilty prior to trial, the relevant facts are derived from the preliminary hearing transcript. Monica Juarez was asleep in her house one morning when someone started ringing the doorbell. Juarez looked outside through the living room window and saw appellant, whom she did not know, standing at the front door. Appellant called out and asked if anyone was home. Juarez did not respond. Appellant went through two gates into the back yard and attempted to remove the screen. He looked into the house through the window, saw Juarez, and left.

We appointed counsel to represent appellant in this appeal. After examining the record, counsel filed an opening brief in which no issues were raised. On August 23, 2016, we advised appellant that he had 30 days within which to personally submit any issues or contentions he wished us to consider. We received no response.

We have reviewed the entire record and are satisfied that appellant's attorney has fully complied with his responsibilities and that no arguable issue exists. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436, 443.)

The judgment is affirmed.

NOT TO BE PUBLISHED.

We concur:
